DR. C. W. ROBACK. having made himself a name in the world, by his great Scandinavian Remedies, will again distinguishing himself by the results of his celebrated "Stomach Bitters," which he is now introducing. These Bitters are not of the kind that now flood the country, made up of poisonous liquors, spices, &c., but contain medical properties, though not unpleasant to the taste. They are calculated to purify the blood, and to strengthen and restore a weak consti-'ution to its natural state 10 We freely recommend this new article to our readers. Hoofland's German Bitters

Hoofland's German Tonic to a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with muna Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, etc. It is used for the same diseases as the Bitters, in cases where some pure alcoholic stimulus, is required. Fou will both in mind that these remodes are oratively diffutent from any others advertised for the cure of the dicease named, these being extentific preparations of medicinal extracts, while the others are were decections of rum in some form. The TONIC is decidedly one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedica everyfered to the public. Its taste is empirish. It is gleanure to take it, while its life-giving, exhibitating, and medicinal qualities have caused it to be immore at the createst of the tool.

Conflagation of the Universe Startling theories concerning the heavenly bodies are not unfrequently advanced.-Among these is that of some scientific men who think that the planets are all gradually tending toward the sun, and must, at some distant period at least, be rendered uninhabitable, and meet a fiery end. The following is attributed to a writer in the Edinburg Re-

It is absolutely certain that all planetary matter is inevita bly gravitating toward the sun which will be the common bourne of our system. "A surely," eloquently writes Sir William Thomson, has the weights of a clock run down to their lowest position, from which they can never rise again unless fresh energy is communicated to them from some source not yet exhausted. so surely must planet after planet creep in age by age. toward the sun," not one can escape the end. In like manner the satellites of the planets must inevitably fall into their respective planets. As then, it has been proved by geology that our earth had a flery beginning, so it is shown, by an appeal to the laws of gravitation, that it will have a fiery end. * * * The earth passed from the incandescent into the habitable state, and will have its individuality annihilated by falling into the sun if it be true that it also is revolving around some eners mously distant center of attraction. The Local Newspaper. The local weskly paper is an absolute necessity to the county and community where published. All the city papers can not supply the place of a home paper. That shoud be the first love of every intelligent man and woman, for the paper is the representative of the locality with which it is identified. The paper gives the county and town where printed much of their importance in the world, and it gives, in detail, the local news which can not be gained from any other source. Every week's is sue of the paper is so much local history, and the rise, growth and development of the town and country can be measured and revorded only by the local newspaper that constantly is gathering its items. People do not properly appreciate their home paper. They measure the value of a paper too much by the number of columns it contains The home paper, at any price, is the cheapest paper one can take, for in it is found the information to be obtained from no other source. Another thing should be taken into consideration. Every county has one or more newspapers. Hence the circulation of each paper must be limited. There is therefore the greater need of activity and interest on the part of the people to give their home paper good, vigorous, substantial support.-

The system of repeating and ballut box stuffing was resorted to on a scale more exe tensive than ever. In one lot the wards about eleven hundred negroes were registered but when the newly sentrant chised came to the ballot boxus, the white repeaters had already voted upon nearly 500 of their names. Full scope was afforded for repeating by the worldition of the registry.
